impression in this state, then the money that is loaned in large amounts generally goes above ~~that~~, or it isn't available at all because it goes where it can be.

SENATOR CARPENTER: I agree with everything that the Senator's said. But the thing I don't understand, is what they don't do what if you take the limit off to accomplish the purpose you say, because the higher the rate, sooner or later you will have a lower rate than you got now....

SENATOR DECAMP: I have an answer to that.

SENATOR CARPENTER: Well, ~~what~~ is it?

SENATOR DECAMP: The answer is the first year I came here, I talked to a wise old man named Terry Carpenter, and he told me legislation is the art of doing the possible. And you and I both know that that ain't possible.

SENATOR CARPENTER: All I can say, Senator, you didn't listen very carefully.

PRESIDENT: I have several lights on here. Let's please discipline ourselves because this discussion has gone on long enough, and we are only talking about the amendment. Senator Warner.

SENATOR WARNER: Mr. President, I would like to ask I suppose either Senator Whitney or Senator DeCamp a question is for at least for clarification on my part. Both of you have made reference on a number of occasions
